W.-L. Oarsmen Sweep Rain Jinx Past, Girls' Nines Three-Race Regatta Ready to Play Here Tomorrow With GW High

Washington-Lee High School oarsmen swept the board against George Washington High in Alexandria yesterday and in the process won the Northern Virginia schoolboy rowing title.

The winners also earned the President's Trophy which they have won the past two years. There was some doubt last night whether this retires the prize or it remains in circulation.

In any event, W-L. 8-oared crews in all divisions showed good form against Alexandria crews who outweighed and outrowedin every race.

It started with the sophomore eight of W.-L., stroked by Dave Sidle, coming in ahead of G.W. by a boat length. The general's junior eight, stroked by John Neate, had a length and a half between it and G. W. at the In the feature varsity eight
